ABOUT US: Marketplace Connections exists to foster a network among professionals from around their city and ultimately around the world. We help foster Good Company, Great Conversation and Inspiring Interaction. We network for business development. But even more we network and connect for personal and spiritual development. This fuels the 'engine' for monthly meetings, small group discussions, and One to One interactions that lead to the strength of relationships developed outside the meetings themselves. For more information, check out our website below. We look forward to seeing you at our next networking event.
