Justin Vorhees, Director of Operations, Ignite Local

Justin is an entrepreneur currently running a 3-year-old internet marketing agency, Ignite Local. He founded the company with his father, Brad, in order to serve small businesses around the country with honest, affordable and effective online marketing services. While the trials of an ever-evolving industry and the demands of managing a growing team and nearly 100 business clients, Justin looks to his God, his family and his adventures to alleviate stress and find that fabled work-life balance.

With his wife of 6 years and their 3-year-old husky, Justin sails, bikes, climbs and skis as often as his packed schedule allows. Justin and Kassi share a vision and life goal of building, among other social enterprises, a 'Restoration Center' that combines holistic mind-body-spirit therapy with outdoor recreation and five-star relaxation to provide a healing environment to all who have need of being renewed and encouraged in their lives.
